Alma Mater

Dayton High, oh, Dayton High
You're crimson and you're gold
Dayton High, oh, Dayton High
Your honor always hold
Friendship true we give anew
Love and service, too.
Dayton High, oh, Dayton High
For thee we will do or die.

Senior History

On June 1, we graduated with the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" in the background. While we now are faced with a more solemn life in the fields of our choice, let us look back on the memories of Dayton High School.

Under the guidance of Miss York, our freshman year got off to a good start with the Freshman-Sophomore party. Our class was well represented in music and sports, and had a creditable scholastic standing.

As Sophomores we were under the direction of Mr. Evers. The honor roll showed that we had a very high scholastic standing. A large number of our class were active in band and choir. Both boys and girls turned out for the various sports.

The major project of the year was the selling of crimson and gold caps. In the spring we ordered our class rings so they would be here in the fall.

At last we were Juniors and with Mr. Redfern as advisor had a very active year. In the fall we gave a dance and sponsored a magician show to raise money. Highlights of the year were the Junior Prom and the class play. The Prom theme was "Deep Purple" with the gym decorated in purple and silver.

Our class play, "Home Sweet Homicide," a mystery comedy, was well received by a capacity audience, March 31. The cast was ably directed by Mrs. Greenman.

Many of our boys turned out for sports.

Seniors? Again under the direction of Mr. Redfern we had an exciting year.

"And Came the Spring," our class play, under the direction of Mrs. Greenman, was well received by the public.

Our class was the first to have an orchestra play for a stocking dance.

This year, too, we were active in music and sports as well as having a good percentage of our rank on the honor roll.

As Spring came, thoughts of all Seniors turned lightly to a sneak and graduation. Our sneak, an overnight trip to Bingham Springs, was greatly enjoyed by the class.

Thirty-eight Seniors graduated that Spring evening in June. Remember!

ANNOUNCEMENT

Senior Class Will

We, the class of 1951 A.D., of Pietrzyski High School in the city of Dayton, county of Columbia, state of Washington, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, ordain, and declare this our last will and testament.

First, to Dale Redfern, who has been our advisor for three years, we leave our sincere thanks for the patience and guidance he has given us.

Second, to the faculty we leave our thanks for the good grades they gave us, and we also leave them a few grey hairs.

Third, to the juniors we leave the front section of the auditorium and the many futile class meetings they will have next fall.

Fourth, to the freshman and sophomore classes we leave our deepest sympathy for the many trials and tribulations they have yet to encounter.

Fifth, the individual members of this senior class will and bequeath the following:

I, Allen Knox, do will and bequeath my ability to manage and play basketball at the same time to Jimmy Broughton, Jr.

We, Lois Bowen and Gerald Howard, do will and bequeath our future years to each other.

I, Keith Criss, do will and bequeath my dancing ability (especially the Charleston) to Marvin "Terror" Melton.

I, Roger Morris, do not will and bequeath anything as far as Eddie is concerned.

I, Arden Archer, do will and bequeath my liquid diet to Billie Stearns.

I, Mrs. Carol Bales, do will and bequeath my rings to Virginia Barnett because I hear she's just dying to get married.

I, Bill Lowe, do will and bequeath my perfect attendance to Beldon Pearson.

I, JoAnn Holman, do not will and bequeath my interest in Pomeroy to anyone, as I intend to keep it for myself.

I, Arlie Eaton, do will and bequeath my boxing technique to Billie Thompson.

I, Marian McCasland, do will and bequeath my lung power at basketball games to Fern Bledsoe.

I, Wayne "Sound Effects" Shea, do will and bequeath my talents in talking to myself, especially in answering my own questions, to Joan Lyman.

I, Norma McCasland, do will and bequeath my thirst for knowledge to Clive Brodhead, as I hear Mr. Redfern would really appreciate it.

I, Kirby Parker, do will and bequeath my genius in math to Charles Hixon.

I, Nancy Vining, do will and bequeath my boisterous manner to Bob Wilson in hopes that he can get a point across to the teacher as well as I.

I, Carl Rowe, do will and bequeath my "love life" to Floyd Bender in hopes he may stay a bachelor as long as I have.

We, Dixie Neal and Fred Verstoppen, do will and bequeath our long engagement to Dolores Thompson.

I, Leora Hillhouse, do will and bequeath my ability to keep calm during a heated argument to Sam Pounds.

I, Roy Scoles, do will and bequeath my beautiful legs to Charles Hixon.

I, Dorothy Mings, do will and bequeath my terrific sense of humor to "Red" Wilbur.

I, Ruth Rider, do will and bequeath my "old fashioned" cure for appendicitis to anybody who can pull through as well as I have.

I, LaVonne Guse, do will and bequeath my secret love life in Lewiston to Pat Thurston.

I, Harvey Pounds, do will and bequeath my love life in Spokane to Merle Bickelhaupt.

I, Maxine Laughery, do will and bequeath my noisy and rough manner to Joye Anderson.

I, Marjie McLean, do will and bequeath my night courses in Ag. with daytime correspondence to Janice Hall.

I, Gary Kitterman, do will and bequeath my facial expressions to Bob Jennings so that he may carry on for me in Band.

I, Pat McLean, do will and bequeath my rendezvous at the 410 Drive-in after certain "social events" to Dwyla Donohue.

I, Betty Ann Rogers, do will and bequeath my willingness to be led astray to Dianne Boon.

I, Elaine Harlan, do will and bequeath my "jail sentence" after the Big and Little Sister Party to Donna Line.

I, Peggy Hoffeditz, would gladly will and bequeath one of my boyfriends to anyone interested enough to come and consult me.

We, Glenna Rae Berry and George Oliver, do will and bequeath our Model A Ford which was stuck in the mud to Ronald Douglas in hopes that he will be able to make it run.

I, Blaine Hoskins, do will and bequeath my ability to jilt girls and get away with it to Tom Bruce.

I, Max Winnett, do will and bequeath my career as a sailor to John Brown.

I, Lois Bamford, do will and bequeath my talents in chemistry (mainly cutting myself) to Laura Berry.

Junior Class Officers

L. Long, T. Bruce, Mr. Stegman, Advisor; B. Wilson, M. Bickelhaupt.

The class of 1952 was led by President Bob Wilson who guided us through a most successful year. Other officers for the year were Vice Presidents Merle Bickelhaupt and Tommy Bruce, Secretary-Treasurer LaVerne Long, Representatives Ray Ford and Dwyla Donohue (1st semester) and Sam Pounds and LeRoy Kirk (2nd semester).

One of the highlights of the year was the Jr. Prom which was held on the twenty-second of November in the Gymnasium at 8 o'clock. The theme was "Stardust," and the colors were Blue and Silver. Silver stars adorned the walls. The booths, which were decorated with stars and streamers, gave a night club effect.

The play, "And Never Been Kissed," by Aurand Harris, was presented by two casts chosen from the Junior class. Each gave an afternoon and evening performance. They were both very successful.

The Class of "53," under the direction of Mr. Metzger, came to an end after a very active year.

We began the year with the Freshman-Sophomore welcoming party, which was a success.

During football season, the whole class pitched in and we sold hot coffee at all the home games. The coffee was donated by the downtown stores.

The Sophomores were represented in practically every sport with several boys earning letters.

The girls were well represented in sports, too.

To wind up the busy year, an all-high dress-up dance was given in the gym March 9.

We began the year with much enthusiasm and eagerness to learn.

The Sophomores entertained us with a party which was enjoyed by all. With the assistance of Mr. Post, the Freshman Class gave a return party October twenty-eighth.

Sports brought out four boys for football and basketball and five boys for boxing.

Shirley Bickelhaupt, Lois Russell, and Pat Coverdale were chosen to represent the Freshman as majorettes.

There were ten girls in choir and seven Freshmen in band.

The representatives to Student Council were Betsy Ankeny and Shirley Bickelhaupt.

Girls' Federation

1950-51 will be recorded in the minutes book of Girls' Federation as being a very active year. Under the direction of Mrs. Post, our Advisor, we started the year by selling pop and hotdogs at all home football games.

The Annual Big and Little Sister Party was the first big event of the year. It was a great success. The Sadie Hawkins dance, which was in March, was also well attended.

The Girls' Federation sponsored a movie, "The Happy Years," at the local theatre February 5th and 6th. This project netted a nice profit.

The crowning of Queen Lois I at the annual Coronation Ball on the night of May 18th brought to a close a very successful year for Girls' Federation and for our able president, Lois Bowen.

May Fete Court

Norma McCasland, Gary Kitterman, Marjie McLean, Blaine Hoskins, Gerald Howard, Queen Lois Bowen, Keith Criss, Betty Ann Rogers, Harvey Pounds, Elaine Harlan.

Queen Lois I ruled over the May court and the annual Coronation Ball. During the very impressive ceremony she was crowned by the Student Body President, Gerald Howard. In the Queen's royal court were Norma McCasland, escorted by Gary Kitterman; Marjie McLean, escorted by Blaine Hoskins; Betty Ann Rogers, escorted by Keith Criss; and Elaine Harlan, escorted by Harvey Pounds.

The attendants wore gowns of similar style in yellow, green, peach, and blue. Queen Lois's formal, although white, was of the same style, also.

May Queen

"D" Club

The "D" Club, under the capable and helpful leadership of Mr. Neudorf, had a very successful year.

At the annual football banquet Gary Kitterman received the football inspirational award for 1950. Gerald Howard captured the new Kiwanis blocking award.

Initiation was postponed this year until spring in order to give more boys the benefits of the "D" Club.

The Booster Picnic was held in the Spring in honor of the men about town who help to promote sports.

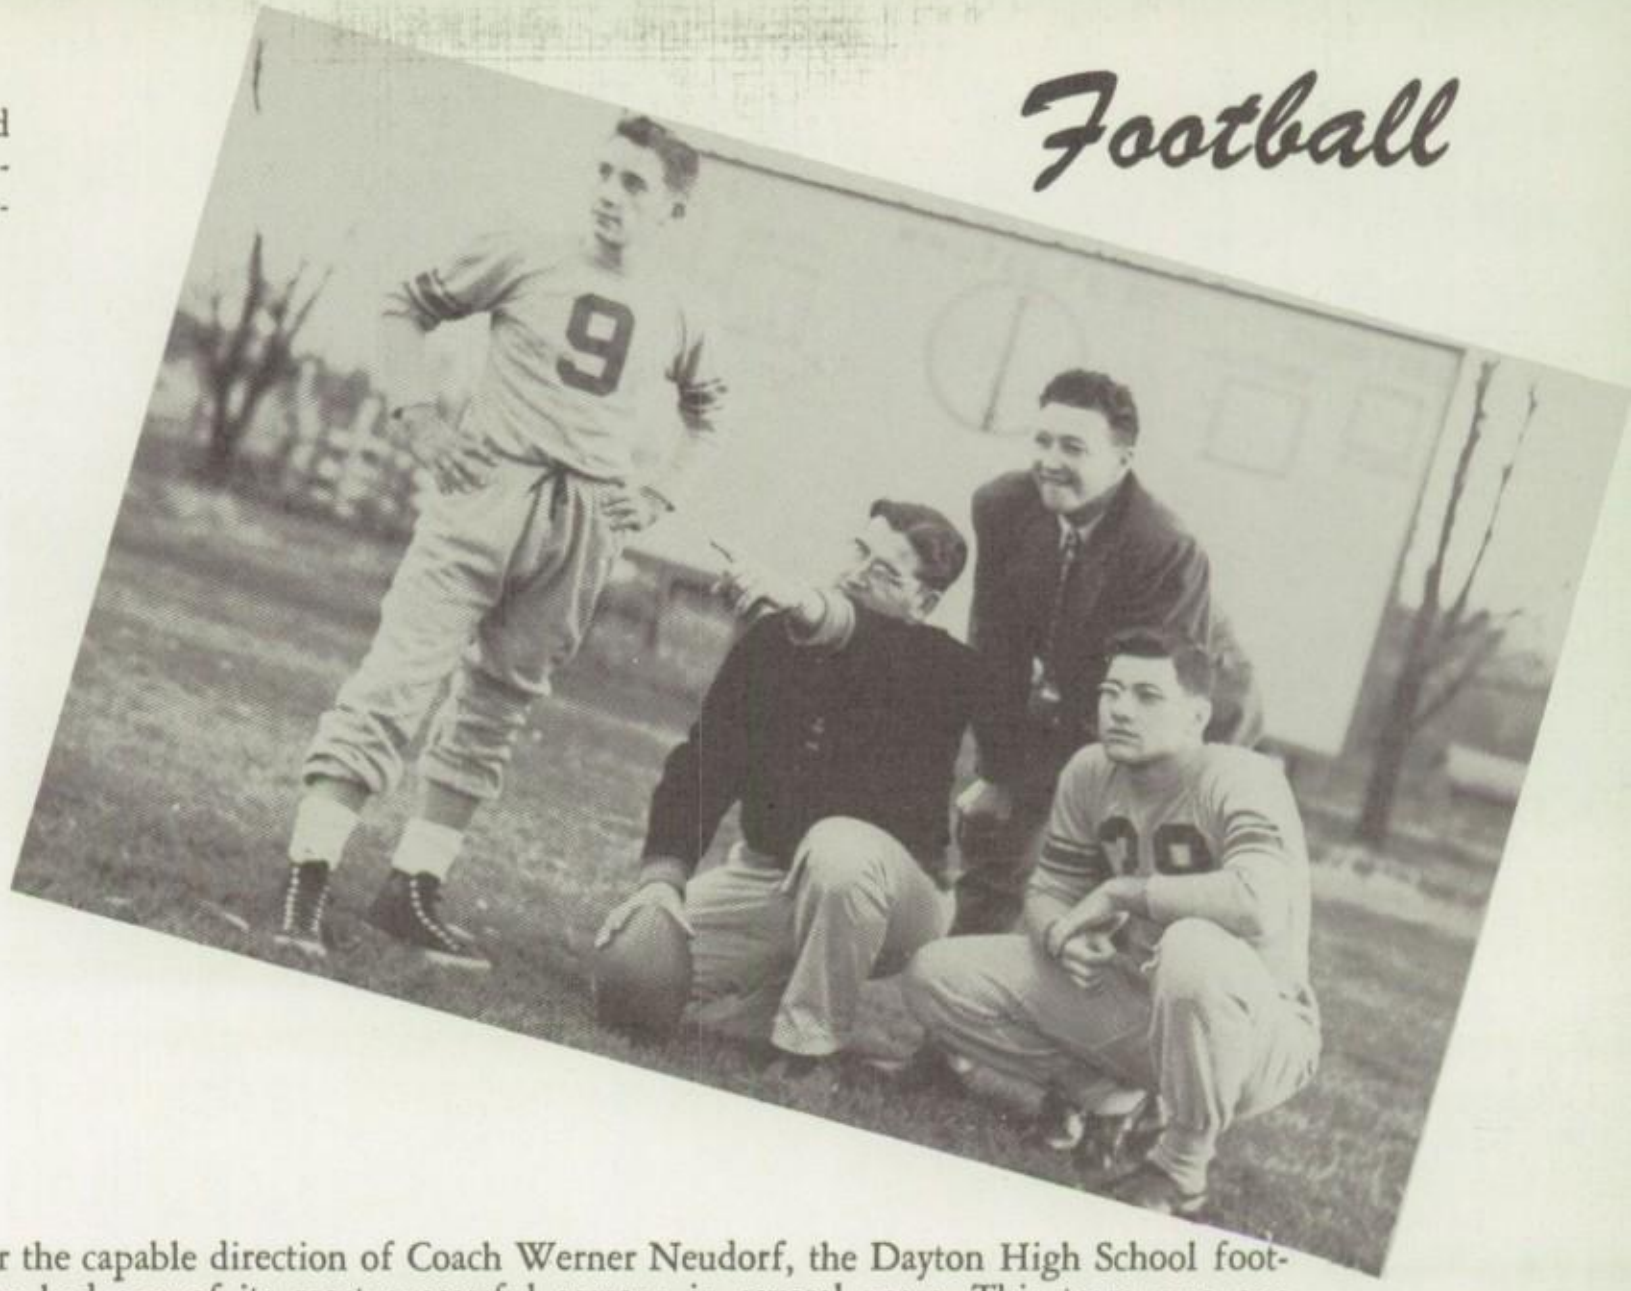
Football



Coaches Neudorf and Redfern with co-captains Howard and Kitterman.

Under the capable direction of Coach Werner Neudorf, the Dayton High School football team had one of its most successful seasons in several years. This team was one of the lightest teams in Southeastern Washington.

Because of the lack of weight, Coach Neudorf introduced the "T" formation. Previously the single-wing was used.

The Bulldogs ended the season with a record of six wins and three defeats.

The Bulldogs scored 142 points while holding their opponents to 55 points.

At the annual football banquet Co-captain Gary Kitterman was presented with the inspirational award. Gerald Howard was presented with the Kiwanis award for being the best blocker on the team.

Raymond Ford and Bob Wilson were elected as co-captains for the 1951 football season.
